RULES RELATED TO COVID-19 :: Escrime Mont-Royal will apply the directives and health measures enforced by the Government of Quebec in the Recreation and Sports sector on the date of the tournament.

ACCESS TO THE ARENA :: Only the staff, athletes and coaches can access the fencing area. Any other person including accompanying persons and spectators must remain in the stands. The application of wearing a face covering will follow the directives and health measures in force on the date of the tournament. All authorized persons will have a bracelet. Athletes will have their bracelets cut off by the referees once eliminated. Coaches will also have their bracelets cut if all their athletes are eliminated.

ACCESS TO THE FENCING AREA :: Coach access will be granted only to club coaches. The list of coaches is defined by the Quebec Federation of Fencing. For clubs outside Quebec, the fencing club will contact the provincial federation to obtain the list of coaches. In order to facilitate the competition day, a coaches meeting will be organized the morning of each competition day. Each coach will get their access card for the coaches meeting.

ABOUT MAÎTRE STEPHEN VAMOS :: S. Vamos became a Maître d'Armes in France (1949). Maître Vamos was a founding member of various fencing groups in Canada, most notably the Canadian Fencing Masters Academy, and the Québec Modern Pentathlon Association (1972). Maître Vamos wrote several important fencing books including the 1st NCCP Coaches Manual. He became head-coach at EMR in 1969, and left us in 2003 at the age of 96. His spirit lives on and through his former students he continues to inspire us all.
